

Indiana already has a great program, we do not need this legislation. You should either not make it applicable to states that already have legislation or not pass this flawed plan.